A LETTER FROM THE FOUNDER

BOTH WORLDS · ONE BODY · NEVER CHOOSE

BY ROWAN

VOLUME ONE

Corropt has been trying to find itself for years.

We had a vision. It wasn't clear.

It is now.

We all live in two worlds.

The version of you on Sunday isn't the version of you on Saturday.

The you that feels low at home isn't the you that feels high outside.

Tough. Vulnerable.

The you the world sees, and the you only you see.

We don't want you to choose.

We want you to be both.

You were never meant to choose.

We're making clothes for that.

For both you. For the body that has to hold all of it.

And we've started.

Quietly. With our hands. The new world is being made.

I'm happy to have you
in my house.

Whatever you do in the dark should never feel like it isn't you.
